

Humanities and Languages Department

Year 10 History

Subject Description

History demands that students ask questions of the past. It develops students' knowledge, curiosity and imagination about the lives of those who have gone before them. History promotes the understanding of societies, events, movements, ideas and developments that have shaped humanity from the earliest times. Students come to appreciate how the world and its people and environments have changed and what legacies we call upon in the present.

Weekly workload in hours: 1+ hours

COURSE DURATION

1 Year

SUBJECT TYPE

Elective

Structure

TERM 1	TERM 2	TERM 3	TERM 4
Modern History	Ancient History	Modern History	Ancient History
World War Two	Ancient Egypt	Building Modern Australia – Civil Rights	Ancient China
ASSESSMENT	ASSESSMENT	ASSESSMENT	ASSESSMENT
Response to Stimulus Exam	Historical Fiction	Research Essay	Research Oral

POSSIBLE CAREER PATHS

- Archaeologist
- Anthropologist
- Historian
- Journalist
- Researcher

HUMANITIES AND LANGUAGES SENIOR SUBJECT OFFERINGS

GENERAL SUBJECT	GENERAL SUBJECT	VET SUBJECT	VET SUBJECT	VET SUBJECT	GENERAL SUBJECT	GENERAL SUBJECT	GENERAL SUBJECT	GENERAL SUBJECT
4 QCE POINTS	4 QCE POINTS	8 QCE POINTS	4 QCE POINTS	4 QCE POINTS	4 QCE POINTS	4 QCE POINTS	4 QCE POINTS	4 QCE POINTS
Ancient History	Business	Certificate III Business	Certificate II Tourism	Certificate II Workplace Skills	Geography (not offered 2026)	Italian (not offered 2026)	Legal Studies	Modern History